Dear Jay,

It may mean nothing, but last night, on WTOP-TV, there was a report on this guy and these deaths. The father of the policeman was interviewed. He or the reporter alluded to a veritable arsenal allegedly in the apartment. If that is true, perhaps there may be a little more than dope and short fuse here.

I had to keep the jump of the story, for it backs up on something I need. It does not refer to other arms, etc.

I have no reason to believe I have ever met Jarred, know anything about him, yet that is a familiar face.

Nothing else new.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
